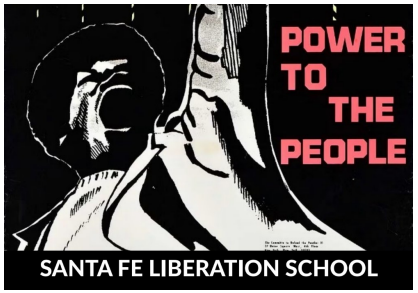
here is HOW

Santa Fe Liberation School contributes to a culture of resistance to authoritarian power and resilience to converging crises. We seek to normalize the principles of social revolution to free the people, save the planet and build a better world.



HOW TO BUILD A REVOLUTION

Social revolution is the transformation of our relationships towards egalitarian values and horizontal organization. Here is how we achieve it...

Identify a harm or need in your community.

Join or start a project towards transformative change.

Tie your project into a revolutionary web of solidarity.

Contribute to an ecosystem of revolt.

Build autonomy, capacity, and communal self-determination.

Build it, Take it, or Shut it Down
